UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

SERVICE AND REGULATORY ANNOUNCEMENTS

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

DECEMBER 1934

[This publication is issued monthly for the dissemination of information, instructions, rulings, etc., concerning the work of the Bureau of Animal Industry. Free distribution is limited to persons in the service of the Bureau, establishments at which the Federal meat inspection is conducted, public officers whose duties make it desirable for them to have such information, and journals especially concerned. Others desiring copies may obtain them from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., at 5 cents each or 25 cents a year (foreign, 45 cents). A supply will be sent to each official in charge of a station or branch of the Bureau service, who should promptly distribute copies to members of his force. A file should be kept at each station for reference.]

LICENSES ISSUED FOR BIOLOGICAL PRODUCTS, NOVEMBER 1934

License no. 9 was issued November 9, 1934, to Lederle Laboratories, Inc., Middletown Road, Pearl River, N. Y., for infectious-laryngotracheitis vaccine.

License no. 112 was issued November 30, 1934, to the Fort Dodge Serum Co., 300 First Avenue South, and 2 miles from the city in Douglas Township, Fort Dodge, Iowa (mailing address: 300 First Avenue, South), for antierysipelas serum (swine); anticanine-distemper serum (homologous).

LICENSES TERMINATED, NOVEMBER 1934

License no. 192, issued December 18, 1929, to the Division of Animal Industry, California Department of Agriculture, Tenth and L Streets, Sacramento, Calif., was terminated November 15, 1934, because of discontinuance of production.

PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE PACKERS AND STOCKYARDS ACT

Docket no. 425.—In re Sioux City Stock Yards Co., Sioux City, Iowa. This proceeding was initiated by the Acting Secretary of Agriculture on August 2, 1933, and is a general inquiry into the reasonableness and lawfulness of the rates and charges for stockyard services rendered by respondent. A hearing was held in Sioux City, beginning on October 2, 1933, and was adjourned on November 23, 1933, to be continued in Washington, D. C., on December 11, 1933. The hearing was concluded on December 22, 1933. On August 11, 1934, counsel for the Government submitted to the Secretary of Agriculture, for his approval, a proposed order finding that respondent's rates and charges are unreasonable and unjustly discriminatory and prescribing reasonable and nondiscriminatory rates. A copy of the proposed order was submitted also to counsel for the respondent. Respondent was given until September 4, 1934, to file exceptions to the proposed order. At the request of counsel for respondent the time for filing exceptions was extended to September 15. Respondent filed 10 general and 145 specific exceptions to the proposed order and asked for a rehearing. On October 8, 1934, the matter was argued before the Secretary of Agriculture by counsel for the Government and for the respondent and each submitted a brief. Careful consideration was given to respondent's exceptions; some were allowed and others overruled. The petition for rehearing was on the ground that since the closing of the hearing on December 22, 1933, substantial changes had occurred in respect to certain circumstances and conditions so as to make the record of the original hearing no longer fairly representative of conditions affecting respondent's operations. After a thorough investigation the petition for rehearing was denied. On December 13, 1934, the Secretary issued an order prescribing new rates and charges which are substantially lower than those under investigation. The new rates are to become effective 30 days from the date of the Secretary's order.

Docket no. 449.—In re Dewey Anderson Commission Co., et al., Omaha, Nebr. On October 22, 1934, the Acting Secretary of Agriculture issued an inquiry, alleging that respondents had been and were then engaged in an unjust and unreasonable practice in violation of the Packers and Stockyards Act in that they were charging their patrons a higher rate than is necessary or reasonable for fire insurance on livestock handled for such patrons. Respondents through their attorney on or about November 3, 1934, admitted the truth of the matters and things alleged. On December 3, 1934, respondents were ordered to cease and desist from the unjust and unreasonable practice of charging their patrons a higher rate than is necessary for fire insurance on livestock handled for them in commerce at the Union Stock Yards, Omaha, Nebr.

Stockyards Withdrawn From Jurisdiction

The Wapakoneta Union Stock Yards, located at Wapakoneta, Ohio, was withdrawn from the jurisdiction of the Packers and Stockyards Act on December 10, 1934, owing to the fact that it has been ascertained that the area now used for stockyard purposes is less than 20,000 square feet.

RESULTS OF PROSECUTIONS FOR VIOLATIONS OF LAWS

Penalties and fines have been imposed in prosecutions for violations of regulatory laws, as reported to the Bureau, as follows:

Meat Inspection Law

For "offering for interstate transportation unrendered fats possessing the physical characteristics of an edible product without first denaturing them": Theobald Animal By-Products Refinery, Kearny, N. J., $50 fine.

CIVIL-SERVICE FORMS TO COMPLETE APPOINTMENTS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED PROMPTLY

The Civil Service Commission has called the attention of the Department to delay in securing from this Department the necessary declarations of appointee, medical certificates, and fingerprint charts to complete appointments in the Department of Agriculture. As an illustration, the Commission states that on September 27, 1934, there were approximately 350 incomplete appointments from the Department of Agriculture and the necessary forms which had been requested, in numbers of cases more than once, had not been received.

The bureaus are requested to issue appropriate instructions to insure the prompt completion and submission of these forms. It is suggested that the forms be executed, whenever possible, at the time the appointee takes the oath of office and fills out his personal history sheet. An appointment is not considered complete until all the forms pertinent to an appointment have been received and cooperation on the part of all officials of this Department will eliminate considerable correspondence and expedite completion of appointments.

The information which follows is intended to serve as a guide as to the type of forms required in connection with several methods of appointment:

1. Probational appointment:
  - (a) Declaration of appointee (Form 124).
  - (b) Medical certificate (Form 2413).
  - (c) Fingerprint chart (Form 2390).
2. Temporary appointment to positions in the classified civil service.
  - (a) Declaration of appointee (Form 124).
3. Appointment from unskilled-labor registers:
  - (a) Medical certificate (Form 2413).
  - (b) Fingerprint chart (Form 2390).

If appointment is made from a certificate or authority issued by a civil service district manager, the forms referred to above should be sent direct to the district manager, otherwise, they should be sent to the Division of Appointments in the Department.

SUSPENSION FROM DUTY AND TERMINATION OF APPOINTMENTS

Recently there has been an increasing number of cases where field officials of various bureaus have notified temporary and probational employees that their services were no longer required and at a later date, ranging from a few days to several weeks, this office has been called upon to confirm such unwarranted action by approving formal recommendations from the bureaus concerned to terminate the appointments of these employees effective at the termination of the last dates they were permitted to serve.

Such procedure is embarrassing to the Department and should be discontinued. Chiefs of bureaus and offices are therefore requested to issue appropriate instructions to field officials concerned. It might be well to include in these instructions a statement to the effect that while administrative officers have authority to terminate the services of persons employed under letters of authorization, they do not have authority to remove or suspend any employee holding an appointment from the Secretary. Such authority rests exclusively with the Secretary or Acting Secretary. Any recommendation to suspend an employee or to terminate his appointment should reach the Secretary for consideration prior to the effective date of the action. Of course, an exception to this rule is recognized in cases where an employee abandons his position. Where necessary, recommendations may be submitted by telegraph but in such cases care should be taken to see that all pertinent facts are given.

DR. R. P. STEDDOM RETIRES

The retirement on December 31 of Dr. R. P. Steddom, chief of the Meat Inspection Division of the Bureau, marks the termination of 37 years of active service. During this time Dr. Steddom supervised the upbuilding of a service which has won world-wide recognition for its high scientific standards, practical benefits to industry, and protection to public health. In commending Dr. Steddom at the close of his distinguished career as a public officer, Dr. John R. Mohler, chief of the Bureau, paid tribute to his administrative capacity as well as to his scientific ability.

DR. A. J. PISTOR HEADS FEDERAL MEAT-INSPECTION SERVICE

Dr. A. J. Pistor, formerly assistant chief of the Meat Inspection Division of the Bureau, has been appointed chief of that division to succeed Dr. R. P. Steddom who retired December 31. Dr. Pistor entered the Bureau in December 1898 and was assigned to meat-inspection work at Chicago. He later was detailed to sheep-scabies eradication in Nebraska and Wyoming.

When the new meat-inspection law was put into effect, Dr. Pistor was again assigned to meat-inspection work at Chicago as traveling inspector. In 1910 he came to Washington, D. C., to assist in revising the meat-inspection regulations and later was assigned to the administrative staff of the division. In carrying on the work Dr. Pistor plans to continue the same general policies that have been in effect in the past.

DR. H. C. MCPHEE, NEW ANIMAL-HUSBANDRY CHIEF

Dr. Hugh C. McPhee, geneticist, has been appointed chief of the Animal Husbandry Division, effective January 1, 1935. Dr. McPhee came to the Bureau in 1923 and was placed in charge of animal-genetics investigations in the Animal Husbandry Division in 1926. He is the author of scientific papers on the subject of animal breeding in a wide range of journals, and has achieved, in recent years, some highly encouraging results with close inbreeding of domestic breeds of swine at the United States Animal Husbandry Experiment Station, Beltsville, Md.
